Dear Friends and Supporters,

Greetings from Mosaic Theatre in Plantation! Proud recipient of six 2009 Carbonell Awards including Best Production of the Year, Mosaic Theatre has established itself as "Broward County's Dramatically Dominant Theater Company" (Miami Herald).

Our Ninth Anniversary Season recently opened to critical acclaim with the Southeastern Premiere of Tom Stoppard's epic masterpiece "Rock 'N' Roll," immediately followed by the hilarious hit comedy "Why Torture is Wrong and the People Who Love Them" by celebrated author Christopher Durang.

We are especially looking forward to the Mosaic Theatre Gala & Auction 2010 "Back to the 60s" to be held on Saturday, March 6th. It promises to be a spectacular evening with great food, live music, complimentary bar, and fabulous silent and live auction items, PLUS a performance of "Make Me A Song: The Music of William Finn," an uproarious and moving musical revue celebrating the works of the Tony Award-winning composer.

We are asking you to donate something for the live or silent auction to help us raise money to support our theatre and educational programs. All items and donors will be listed in our Gala Program Book. Please complete and fax the attached auction commitment as soon as possible. For your convenience, you may also complete the form online at www.mosaictheatre.com by selecting Auction Commitment Form.

We would be very pleased to feature you as one of our valued supporters. Our Auction Wish List includes, but certainly is not limited to: Cruises, Weekend Packages, Retail and Restaurant Gift Certificates, Sports Items, Spa Packages, Gift Baskets, Art and anything else you feel our patrons would value.

Thank you in advance for your generosity. We look forward to a successful event with your support.

Warm regards,

Richard Jay Simon
